PROJECTS

Personal Website

A personalized game that takes the user on an adventure where they choose the path that the story takes.

- Created using Javascript, HTML/CSS
- Incorporated Event Listeners for a more Dynamic and responsive website

Text Adventure Game

A personalized game that takes the user on an adventure where they choose the path that the story takes.

- Created using Javascript and runs in the Console using basic git flow
- Created entirely using Javascript as the engine/brain
- In Progress: Will continue to build this out to create a storytelling app using Responsive Design and APIs

Snowman Game

A recreation of a childhood guessing game that runs in the Console. The user has to guess the letters in the mystery word before their chances run out. User interacts through the command line to interact with the game.

- Created using JavaScript, HTML/CSS
- Uses Chalk attachment to style text
- In Progress: Create a mobile game application with a responsive interface and multiple levels of difficulty.

ToDo List

Works the same as a note taking app

- Created using JavaScript and CSS/HTML and Object Oriented Design through DOM manipulation
- In progress: Developed utilizing APIs to a stand alone app that can store multiple files/lists on the user's device.
- Incorporates responsive design to create a better user experience
